

Above: Zaw Zaw teaching English
Below: Students studying English

Myaguis - a village in Mizoram, India. It is one of the states in the North East of India. The state is known for its beautiful landscapes and rich cultural heritage. The image shows a group of students sitting around a table, engaged in a study session or discussion. This suggests that AHREM is working to improve educational opportunities in this region.